

Form CRS Customer Relationship Summary

Introduction

MidAtlantic Capital Management, Inc. is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an Investment Adviser. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ, and it is important for you to understand the differences. The SEC offers free and simple tools to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS which also provides information tailored to educate retail investors about financial professionals.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

Our firm offers the below principal investment advisory services to retail investors which we monitor continuously as part of our standard services:

- Portfolio Management Services

The services mentioned above include the provision of continuous advice to a client for investing the client's account based on his/her particular circumstances. Our firm provides investment discretion for those services. If you invest with us on a discretionary basis, as mentioned in our investment management agreement with you, we will buy and sell investments in your accounts (within the parameters established within your Investment Policy Statement) without requiring your pre-approval on an ongoing basis until you notify us in writing to terminate the agreement.

Our minimum account size is typically $250,000, however under certain circumstances, we will waive the minimum at our discretion.

For additional information including minimum investment amounts, please see adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/116524 for our Form ADV, 2A brochure (Items 4 and 7 of Part 2A).

Ask your financial professional:

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not? How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

Our fees are assessed quarterly and are disclosed in our Form ADV Part 1A, Item 5.E. and more fully described in our Form ADV Part 2A, Items 5.A., B., C., and D. Some fees create conflicts of interest described below and in more detail in our firm's Part 2A.

- When our firm charges you asset-based fees, more assets in the account will cause you to pay more in total fees and therefore we may have an incentive to encourage you to increase the amount of money invested in those accounts. However, please note that the fee rate percentage does not increase with more assets in the account and typically decreases at certain asset levels as detailed in our Form ADV Part 2A.

There are other fees and costs related to our investment advisory services and investments in addition to the principal fees and costs listed above that you will pay directly or indirectly. For example, other common fees and costs applicable to you could include wire transfer fees, mutual fund fees or exchange-traded fund fees. Our firm does not receive any portion of these fees.

Additional Information:

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

For more detailed information about our fees and costs please review our Form ADV, Part 2A brochure (specifically Items 5.A., B., C. and D.) which can be found at adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/116524.

Ask your financial professional:

– Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when providing recommendations when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are examples to help you understand what this means.

- The more assets there are in your investment account(s), the more total fees you will pay, and the firm has incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in their account(s). For example, recommending rollovers from retirement plan assets such as 401(k) accounts to an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) that is advised by our firm can increase the amount of advisory fees you will pay.
- Arrangements with custodians of your assets also present a potential conflict of interest due to services that can be beneficial to us when we recommend you use them to maintain custody of your financial assets.

Ask your financial professional:

– How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Additional information:

For more detailed information about our fees and costs please review our Form ADV, Part 2A brochure, Items 5.A., B., C. and D.) which can be found at adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/116524.

How do your financial professionals make money?

We pay our professionals a base salary and a share of the firm's profitability, and therefore they have the opportunity to earn more when opening more accounts and increasing assets while remaining within the guidelines of our investment policy.

Do you or your financial professionals have any legal or disciplinary history?

No, neither our firm nor our financial professionals have any disciplinary history. Visit Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research our firm and our financial professionals.

Ask your financial professional:

– As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?
